

invitation, guideline

WE BRING ...

- a unique selection of dance, performance, somatic practices books, according to your event, focus, guest artists. We welcome any proposals and suggestions, ahead of the event. Our selection can be multilingual.
- presence of two people from our team throughout the event, experts, open for discussions and to give advices. The opening hours are decided together.
- a lively bookstore space which becomes a place for encounters, exchange and discussions around dance.
- customised events around books and movement: workshops, reading-naptimes, encounters with artists, conferences... You may find more information here: Expanded Books on the Move.
- communication on all our media - website, social media, monthly newsletter.

... WE ASK

- an annual membership of 125€ to Books on the Move's association (French non-profit organisation), which runs with the help of volunteers.
- coverage for travel and accommodation expenses for 2 people. Depending on destination, we travel by train, car or plane.
- a space dedicated to the bookstore, visible and welcoming with :
 - one or several tables to display the books
 - shelves, preferably on wheels
 - a table and two desk chairs
 - appropriate lighting
 - sofas, bean bags, cushions for a cosy reading corner
 - an easily accessible storage space
 - a wifi connexion
 - a parking space (if we travel by car)
 - clear signposts and directions within the venue
- free entrances to all events and performances.
- communication on your media about Books on the Move's presence. We can send you logos/texts/photos.